

Igniting Connections Symposium

April 21, 2023

The Inn at Virginia Tech - Blacksburg, Virginia

ACTIVITIES	TIME
Registration	7:30 - 8:00
Morning session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Overview of Project-Based Learning Facilitating Investigations Studies in Preschool 	8:00 - 10:10
Coffee & Share <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Think about and share with your table: As an educator, what inspires me every day? Is there an inspirational quote, book, poem, or song that I resonate with? Write it on a sticky note and place it in the Inspiration Wall. 	10:10 - 10:30
Mid-morning session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Meeting Diverse Learning Interests and Needs Alignments with CLASS Constructs 	10:30 - 12:00
Lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maya Jaffe as Princess Winnifred of "Once Upon a Mattress", a concert-style musical comedy production. Organized by Dee Hopkins of the School of Performing Arts at Virginia Tech. Visit Exhibitors 	12:00 - 12:45
Afternoon session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pathways Study and Play Time Concluding Discussion and Reflection 	12:45 - 2:45
Closing remarks and Evaluation	2:45 - 3:00

Throughout this professional development we will use materials you can find by scanning this QR code:

Your feedback is very much needed and appreciated! Scan this QR code and fill out the evaluation form:

Presented by Virginia Tech in partnership with:

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND FAMILY SCIENCE
CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER FOR LEARNING & RESEARCH
VIRGINIA TECH.

NEW RIVER
Community College

TTAC